

THE STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA

Application for 2006 - 2007 Appointments

You may apply to up to three committees, but can only be appointed to one. A separate application must be submitted for each committee to which you apply (see application deadlines listed on the Filing Instructions page). If you are not appointed to any of your three selected committees, your application may be circulated to other interested committees. Please note that attorney applicants to the JNE Commission must be active State Bar members, and applicants to a section executive committee must be members of that section. Correspondence regarding your application will be mailed to your State Bar public address of record. Terms for standing, section executive and special committees begin Oct. 8, 2006. Terms for the 2007 JNE Commission begin Feb. 1, 2007. New appointees will be notified by letter between July 25 and Oct. 8, 2006. Applicants to ABA House of Delegates and Judicial Council will be notified by June 1, 2006.

Instructions. Please type or print clearly with dark ink. If the space provided is not sufficient for your response, you may attach a separate page. Date and sign the application in the space provided. Make a copy for your records. Include a statement of interest indicating why you wish to serve on the committee and what you can contribute. Also attach a resume or biography. A maximum of three letters of recommendation may be submitted. All letters of recommendation must be submitted to the Appointments Office. Do not submit copies of books or published articles. When you have completed this application, follow filing instructions at the end. Your application is confidential.

Part Two

The State Bar of California values diversity and broad-based representation in its appointments. The legal community is diverse and it serves an even more heterogeneous population. The recruitment and selection of applicants with diverse backgrounds, experiences, outlooks, and ideas will bring qualities essential to the governance of the legal profession and to the services the State Bar provides to its diverse members and to the public. It is therefore the policy of the State Bar's Board of Governors to encourage the participation of all State Bar members in order to obtain broad representation on each entity. To the extent available, the State Bar will consider factors which encourage breadth and depth of perspective including, but not limited to, the following: geographic location of residence and work, practice area, size of law practice, length of time practicing, specific accomplishments, volunteer work, educational background, ethnicity, gender, age, sexual orientation, and disability. The State Bar provides equal access to all applicants and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of sex, race, color, ancestry, religious creed, national origin, physical disability (including HIV and AIDS) or mental disability, medical condition (cancer), age (over 40), marital status, denial of family care leave, political affiliation, sexual orientation, disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran status.

Please complete the following portion of the Appointment Application to let us know how you can contribute to the diversity and broad composition of the State Bar's committees and commissions:

▶ What unique characteristics, perceptions, experiences, personal talents, or qualifications would you bring to the committee?

▶ Please describe the communication skills and leadership abilities that you possess that will lend to the activities of the committee:

Application for 2006 - 2007 Appointments

Application Form and Filing Instructions

For each application, staple the documents in the following order:

- Application form
- Statement of interest (i.e., why you want to serve on the committee)
- Resume or biography
- Letters of recommendation (no more than three)

Resume/Biography: Your resume or biography may include any of the following: business, occupational or professional licenses; legal and general educational background; academic, professional or civic honors; articles or publications authored (do not attach copies); accomplishments of note; proven commitment to volunteer work/capacity to make expected time commitment; national, state and/or local bar committee service, professional and/or community association memberships, personal and/or organizational references.

Letters of Recommendation: You may submit a maximum of three (3) letters of recommendation. The letters may be submitted separately, but all letters of recommendation must be submitted to the Appointments Office in the State Bar's San Francisco office.

ABA House of Delegates: In your application, please describe your ABA activities and the contributions you have made to the organization in the past two years.

Commission on Judicial Nominees Evaluation (JNE): Attorney applicants must be State Bar members in good standing and in active practice. In your statement of interest for the JNE Commission, please describe why you are interested in the Commission, any experience you have with interviewing professional applicants, and your ability to make the time commitment and attend a mandatory Orientation meeting to be scheduled on a Friday and Saturday in January or February 2007. A letter of recommendation, especially from an employer, is helpful.

For each application, make one original and six (6) one-sided copies of the form and attachments. Submit the seven (7) sets of each application by the established deadline.

Deadlines: Unless otherwise noted at the Web site, each year the application deadlines for the following entities are:

ABA House of Delegates; Judicial Council — February 1

Standing, Section Executive and Special Committees — February 1

Commission on Judicial Nominees Evaluation (JNE) — June 1

Applications received after these dates will be kept on file for consideration for the following year's appointments and/or for interim appointments to fill partial terms.

Mail or deliver to:

Appointments Office
State Bar of California
180 Howard Street
San Francisco, CA 94105-1639

We will accept your application form by fax if the original and six (6) copies are mailed and postmarked no later than the established deadline (see above). The fax number is 415.538.2255.
